FEATURED STUDENT: KATELYN KWAN

Katelyn Kwan has been a loyal and dedicated student of our chess school, showing consistent commitment both in class and beyond. She was a student in our National Preparation Program, where she further strengthened her skills through advanced training. She has volunteered her time to support younger students, who admire and look up to her with great affection. Katelyn is widely regarded as a wonderful role model, setting a strong example of discipline, kindness, and perseverance. Currently in the pre-Bishop class, she has already earned numerous awards through her impressive tournament performances. Her competitive spirit is matched by her humility and willingness to help others succeed. Katelyn's steady progress and accomplishments have positioned her for an imminent promotion to the Bishop level. We are proud to recognize her contributions and look forward to her continued success.
